

For Immediate Release

Contact: Eric Foster, Co-Founder & Spokesperson
The Future - Today & Tomorrow Super PAC
248- 996-5553
eric@futurepac.today

The Future - Today & Tomorrow celebrates Vice President Harris for her great campaign and our winning 2024 General election candidates.

Lansing, MI – The Future - Today & Tomorrow Super PAC, an African American- founded organization, is proud of our support for Vice President Kamala Harris's historic campaign, excited to see the election and re-election of 11 Diverse endorsed The Future – Today & Tomorrow's candidates to Federal and Statewide offices in the November 2024 General Election:

"We are disappointed in the outcome of the Presidential election but are definitely proud of our support of Vice-President Kamala Harris, the first African American and Asian American female Vice President, for President of the United States," said Eric Foster, Co-Founder of the Future - Today & Tomorrow Super PAC. "Separately, we are excited to have helped make history by the election of highly qualified and capable African American, Hispanic American, Arab American, Native American candidates and historic female candidates who exemplify the future of America's Multiracial and Multicultural Constitutional Republic and Representative Democracy.

The Future – Today & Tomorrow Super PAC 2024 General Election winning candidates include:

1. Michigan Supreme Court Justice Kyra Bolden for re-election to full 6 year term - 2024 - First African American woman on Michigan State Supreme Court, retains a Democratic Majority on Michigan's Supreme Court
2. Congresswoman Elissa Slotkin (D) for United States Senate in Michigan - First Jewish American female U.S. Senator from Michigan
3. Congresswoman Rashida Tlaib (D) for Michigan's 13th Congressional District – First Palestinian American elected member to Congress in 2018.
4. State Rep. Janelle Bynum (D) for Congress in Oregon 5th Congressional District - First African American Congresswoman from Oregon and flipped a MAGA Republican incumbent seat.
5. Congressman Ruben Gallego for U.S. Senate (D) in Arizona - First Hispanic Male U.S. Senator from Arizona
6. Congresswoman Emilia Sykes (D) for re-election in Ohio 13th Congressional District – Retains a Democratic swing seat, First African American woman elected to this Congressional District in Ohio History
7. Congresswoman Sharice Davids (D) for re-election in Kansas 3rd Congressional District – Retains a Democratic swing seat, First Native American woman elected to this District in Kansas History
8. Congressman Gabe Vasquez (D) for re-election in New Mexico's 2nd Congressional District – Retains a Democratic swing seat, Retains a Hispanic Democratic member of Congress.
9. Michigan State Senator Kristen McDonald Rivet for Michigan's 8th Congressional District – First women to represent this Congressional District and retains a Democratic swing seat.
10. Congresswoman Marie Gluesenkamp Perez (D) for re-election to Washington State 3rd Congressional District - Retains a Democratic Swing seat, 1st Hispanic American Woman elected to congress from Washington State
11. State Representative Cleo Fields (D) for Louisiana 6th Congressional District - New Congressional District, Majority African American seat, increases African American representation from Louisiana to two members of Congress.

12. State Representative Shomari Figures (D) for Alabama 2nd Congressional District - New Democratic leaning Congressional Seat, increases African American Congressional representation in Alabama to two and is the first African American Democratic male elected to Congress from Alabama.

In alignment with both pragmatic realism regarding the dangerous moment we face and the energy brought to America and our future with Vice President Kamala Harris nomination and campaign, The Future – Today & Tomorrow believes that we must stand up to defend the principles of Freedom, Safety, Health and Wellness and working to ensure the expansion of substantive due process rights (Privacy, Women’s Reproductive Health Rights) and liberties (Federal Cannabis Legalization, Codifying the Right to Vote as a Right of Citizenship). This work will require electing more candidates in 2025, 2026 and going forward, like our 2024 winning candidates to Congress, State and Local offices, partnering with organizations across the Pro-Democracy space, Women’s rights, Voting Rights, Civil Rights, Cannabis legalization advocacy organization, Minority Business and Restorative Economic Justice organizations and supportive businesses who are ready to stand firm for our country. We will be mapping out our strategy, tactics and threats in the next few weeks. Please visit our website <https://www.futurepac.today/> for updates.

About The Future - Today & Tomorrow

The Future - Today & Tomorrow is a Super PAC dedicated to the advancement and protection of civil liberties across the United States. We strive for a future where democracy is unassailable, and every citizen's right to vote is sacrosanct. Our mission is to ensure that technology serves to enhance, not inhibit, the democratic process, fostering a society where everyone has the freedom to choose their leaders without fear or interference. For more information about The Future - Today & Tomorrow, please visit <https://www.futurepac.today/>.

Paid for by The Future - Today & Tomorrow (<https://www.futurepac.today/>) and not authorized by any candidate or candidate committee.

###

At The Future – Today & Tomorrow, we believe in shaping a brighter future for all. Our Super PAC is dedicated to empowering communities of color and fostering positive change through strategic political engagement. Explore our website to discover how you can be a part of building a better tomorrow, starting today, <https://www.futurepac.today/>.